Achievement &amp; Enjoyment

Headteacher Mr S Bowsher

Headteacher's Comment:

It is that time of year when each class votes to select a someone to be on the Junior Governing Board. This is a very important role which exemplifies our value of responsibility really well. The board will meet with Miss Rimmer at different times of the year to make decisions about events and how we can improve the school. Last year for example, they were involved in meetings with other schools virtually, came up with the idea for 'Green Day' and were instrumental in putting more recycling bins in the hall.

The children who are voted for by their peers will have been chosen as they will be a great role model and someone who can communicate well. Congratulations to the new members who were revealed in celebration assembly today. Wear your new badge with pride and I'm sure you will continue the great job done by the children last year.

The new members of the board are:

RS	Rose	2B	Sophie	4D	Tommy	5L	Liam
RT	Niam	2G	Ralphie	4S	Ario	6R	Bethany
1A	Zac	3B	Elsie	5B	Poppy	6S	Millie
1P	Betty	3C	Kai

Finally, thank you to everyone for coming in wearing running kit today. We have raised around £400 for Miss Dow's and Mrs Pirie's charities. Another example of responsibility in action, plus we all got a little bit fitter running around the field.

Have a great weekend.
